FORTRESS MONROE (Va.) Feb. 22.—"Not until some American fleet returns victorious from a great sea battle will there be another such home coming, another such night as this I drink to the American Navy."

This was the toast of President Roosevelt today as he stood, radiantly happy, in the cabin of a little converted yacht Mayflower, at the conclusion of the review, and the ceremonies attending the welcome home of the American battleship fleet.

He was surrounded by the Admirals

and captains of the sixteen world-encircling vessels, brilliantly attired in all the gold lace and paraphernalia of special full dress uniform, and every glass was raised in response to the President's suggestion.

"We stay-at-homes also drink to the men who have made us prouder than ever of our country," added the President, and again the toast was pledged.

SPERRY'S BRIEF REPORT.

"When the fleet sailed from San Francisco, Mr. President," replied

[illegible]

The President was in the same joyous mood as he was when the ships set sail fourteen months ago. To those who had witnessed that notable departure of the first real battleship squadron ever gathered under the American flag he constantly expressed his enthusiasm over the safe and triumphant return of the fleet dispatched under his orders on a cruise which, it was said, was too hazardous for any such body of ships to undertake.

"Do you remember the prophecies of disaster?" asked the President. "Well, here they are," he added, pointing to the ships, returning after fourteen months without a scratch.

"I say it is magnificent."

To the men and junior officers the President expressed his appreciation and the thanks of the country for the prestige which the cruise of the fleet had given to the American navy by making visits to the four division flagships—the Connecticut, Louisiana, Georgia and Wisconsin.

On the Connecticut were gathered detachments of blue jackets from all of the other ships of that division and the same was true of the companies on the other flagships. Going aboard the Connecticut with the crew manning the rails, or drawn up at attention on the quarterdeck, and afterwards, with the band playing "The Star Spangled Banner," and the forward guns firing a salute of twenty-one guns in his honor, the President passed first down the long line of officers along the starboard rail, and had a word of cordial greeting for each one.

Previously on the Mayflower he said a personal word of congratulation to all of the flag and commanding officers. Among them were many personal friends of the President, and these he fairly embraced after the formalities of their first salute had ended.

Constantly during the reception on the Mayflower the President would take Admiral Sperry by the arm and lead him off to one side for a confidential chat.

CLIMBS BARBETTE.

On the Connecticut the President

climbed upon the barbette or steel foundation of the after turret, with its protruding twelve-inch rifles, and in the shadow of those great guns he briefly addressed the crew.

In order to reach the shelf of the barbette, some five feet above the deck, the President had to step first upon a water hydrant. His foot slipped when he made the initial attempt and he narrowly missed a fall which might have proved disastrous. As he finally made the run, the President the crew cheered lustily. The President interspersed his prepared remarks freely with asides, and, particularly, caught the fancy of the men when he told them he was immensely satisfied with the gunnery work thus far accomplished.

"You have done A-1 in smooth water," said the President, "but what I want to see next year is a target practice under rough-water conditions."

The bluejackets on the after bridge started the cheering which was caught up by the white-gloved officers.

PRIEST MAKES CAUSTIC REPLY.

Lawyer Calls Hadley "Master of Innuendo."

Says He Ignores Offenses of Standard Oil.

Declares Attack on Pierce "Malevolent."

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 22.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) H. S. Priest, attorney for the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, replying today to the statement issued by Gov. Herbert S. Hadley, caustically declared that the Governor has, in the oil persecution, acted against the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, but has ignored the legal offenses of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey.

He said Missouri might have followed the precedent established by the Federal government in the Northern Securities case, and proceeded against the Standard Oil Company of New York, but he ironically added, Mr. Hadley, being a great man, was not bound to the course indicated, and failed to make the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey a party to the suit.

Judge Priest averred that Mr. Hadley ignored the plans submitted by the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, a subsidiary of the Standard Oil Company of New York, and that the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey was the real party in interest.

The Governor's policy seems to be a protection for the Standard Oil interests, Judge Priest said, and it is prejudicial to the Pierce interests. Judge Priest said that the demand of the Governor toward the Pierce interests is "malevolent," and he sarcastically referred to Mr. Hadley as a "master of innuendo."

Judge Priest's statement, in part, is: "Mr. Hadley knows, because he obtained the situation from the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, that the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey owns all the stock of the Standard Oil Company of New York, and all the stock of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, and practically all the stock of the Standard Oil Company of Ohio."

"If the offense consists in the holding of the majority of the stock of these companies by the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, he cannot be a master of innuendo."

"The manifest temper of Mr. Hadley toward Mr. Pierce is very malevolent. Mr. Pierce is apparently the helpless victim of an environment from which, without some enforced or voluntary action on the part of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, he cannot escape."

"The will of Mr. Hadley, and the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, is to keep Mr. Pierce out of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, and to keep the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey out of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey."

"The Standard Oil Company of New Jersey is a company of New Jersey, and the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey is a company of New Jersey."

"The Standard Oil Company of New Jersey is a company of New Jersey, and the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey is a company of New Jersey."

"What was there any arrangement to meet there?" "No, sir. Col. Cooper asked me to go to the Governor's mansion and I agreed."

"Did you know of any meetings in Bradford's office?" "No, sir."

SAW CARMACK'S GUN. Mr. Sharp's detailed the movements of the party up to the time they met Senator Carmack. Mr. Sharp's testimony followed closely that given by Robin Cooper in the same relation. Mr. Sharp saying, when he saw Mr. Cooper crossing the street, "I turned my head to the left, looking down the street."

"Why did you look down the street?" "Well, many things came to my mind. I knew there was an unpleasant feeling between Col. Cooper and Senator Carmack. I turned to see what might be the result of the meeting."

"What did you see?" "I saw two people, a man and a woman, (Mr. and Mrs. Easton). Col. Cooper was on the sidewalk. Robin was in the street and Senator Carmack just beyond the ran and woman, near the poles. I saw the Senator step out toward the curb, his hand thrown back to his hip pocket. When he got in my line of vision again, I saw the revolver in his hand. Robin had turned toward the sidewalk. As Robin got near the pole Senator Carmack fired."

"How many times?" "Carmack shot twice."

"Did Robin do?" "He jumped inside the pole, swung around it and as he did so I saw a weapon in his hand."

"What did he do?" "He shot three times."

"When did you see the other defendants?" "I saw Cooper in the Maxwell House about 2 p.m., talking to Mr. Williams. I spoke and passed on."

"When did you see Robin Cooper?" "I saw Robin about 4 p.m. in the Arcade, near the alley. I was on my way up and down the valley."

WILL DEMAND BETTER RAILS.

Committee of Engineers Censure Makers.

Says They Do Not Furnish Roads the Best.

May Require Scientific Test in Future.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, Feb. 22.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) At the annual meeting of the American Railway Engineering and Maintenance of Way Association which will be held here in March, a committee of noted experts from various parts of the country will recommend radical changes in the specifications for the manufacture of steel rails.

The committee was given the subject for investigation months ago when the American Railway Association was unable to come to a definite conclusion regarding the subject. It is understood that the committee will recommend what is known as the drop test, and will present specifications for the manufacture of a drop testing machine for use in the manufacture of steel rails.

The members of the committee have made an exhaustive research into the causes of broken rails and their effect upon the operating record of American railroads. It is understood to be the opinion of the committee that the railroads are not furnishing the best rails as they should, and that they should be made to furnish a rail that will stand scientific tests.

If it is necessary to sacrifice more of the material, or shear off more from the top of the rail, as it is called, then the manufacturers ought to be made to do this. In the opinion of the committee, there is no reason why a much safer steel rail should not be furnished by the manufacturers and presumably at the same price they are now charging for steel rails.

The report of the committee handles the question without gloom and argues the railroads to make a united stand in demanding and securing what is their due in the line of a proper and safe steel rail.

In connection with the annual convention, which will be the last, there is to be an exhibit in the collection of railway appliances and devices. It will undoubtedly be the greatest exhibition of its kind ever seen in any country.

WILL CUT RATES. CANAL WILL SAVE COST.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The canal will be worth the cost of the country for the mere sake of the effect on railroad rates, remarked R. W. Capels of Oregon today.

Railroad men know, what most people do not, that the Panama route will provide rapid, not slow transit. They know that it takes about three weeks to get oranges from Los Angeles to New York by this route, and that it takes only a few days to get them to New York by the Panama route.

"That is one of the matters which will begin to loom large before the canal has been in operation long. It will handle ordinary freight in quicker time, and will reduce the rates on goods, and it will save the shipping trust, perhaps controlled by the Panama Canal Company, a large sum of money."

FEARED TROUBLE. Witness denied specifically ever having said that Carmack should have been dead and in hell for twenty years.

On cross-examination the witness declared that he never saw the revolver Robin Cooper used until the boy was using it, and had no knowledge of Robin Cooper or Robin Jones wanting to borrow a gun.

The State's theory is that the automatic revolver is John Sharp's. Sharp's theory is that the revolver was used by John Sharp, and that he was the one who shot Senator Carmack.

Other witnesses have testified that the shooting was commenced, he feared there might be serious trouble. "You felt so apprehensive of trouble that you broke your promise to go with Col. Cooper to the Governor's mansion, and started home?" "Well, yes."

"Those shots were fired very rapidly, were they not?" "Yes, very rapidly, like this—bang, bang, close together."

"You saw it all? You saw Carmack dead and the son of your friend shot and you went on home?" "I started home. I intended to tell my wife what had happened and return to the scene."

DENIES LANGUAGE. The witness was closely pressed about his slight of Carmack's pistol, despite the cloudy day and his conversation with Miss Steffington. He denied emphatically that he had used the language attributed to him by Robin Cooper, who shot Carmack.

He said he told her there "was shooting between Cooper and Carmack."

He insisted he had not used the plural "Coopers," as the stenographer's notes caught it. He admitted he had not turned back to the scene of the killing until he had met Miss Steffington, who was the only living witness to prove he was not actually at the scene of the shooting the moment it occurred.

He next went around down town and stopped at a number of places. He denied that he did this to establish an alibi.

You told Frank Davis you did not know anything about the shooting?" "No, sir. I said I saw it, but that I was not talking just then."

Adjournment was taken, until tomorrow morning.

Great Crowds Greet Fleet After World-Girdling Voyage.

"For if you ever have to fight," continued the President, "you can't choose your water."

Again the men burst into cheers. Target work is the subject nearest the sailor's heart today. The men are enthusiastic on anything appertaining to it, and the rivalry between the different ships, both at record and battle practice, is intense. The men cheered again when the President declared that this was the first battle fleet ever to circumnavigate the globe, and that any other nation that ever attempted a similar performance must follow the footsteps of America.

TURNED THE TRICK.

"You have done the trick," he exclaimed, and the quick response of the men brought a glad smile to the speaker's lips.

"Other nations may follow," repeated the President, "but they have got to go behind."

The cheering broke out afresh when the President declared of the cruise that "nobody after this will forget that the American coast is on the Pacific as well as the Atlantic."

"Admiral Sperry, officers and men of the battleship fleet," said the President, "over a year has passed since you steamed out of this harbor, and over the world's rim, and this morning the hearts of all who saw you thrilled with pride as the hulls of the mighty warships lifted above the horizon."

"You have been in the northern and southern hemisphere four times you have crossed the line; you have steamed through all the great oceans; you have touched the coast of every continent."

"Ever your general course has been westward, and now you come back to the port from which you set sail. This is the first battleship fleet that has ever circumnavigated the globe. Those who perform the feat again can but follow in your footsteps."

"The little torpedo flotilla went with you around South America, through the Straits of Magellan, to our own interior with the arrangements for the entry and review."

THE BOUND.

The Mayflower in the night had had a perilous journey down the lower Potomac and through the Chesapeake Bay, for scores of ex-cruisers from Washington and Baltimore were striving with her to make their way through the gray banks of mist. But the Mayflower, safely reached her anchorage, off the lightship, that marks the tail of the Hornet, and took up a position in almost the identical spot where fourteen months ago the President had the departing vessels God-speed on their momentous journey.

Promptly at the hour set for their arrival, 11 a.m., a flash of flame and a puff of white powder from the forward bridge of the Connecticut marked the beginning of a day of salutes that reverberated over the dancing waters of the roadstead, with a continuous roar that suggested the din of actual battle. In addition to the salutes fired several times in honor of the President, and almost in the midst of the difficult maneuvers of swinging the ships into anchorage position, a discharge of the Father of His Country was not forgotten.

At noon, in union with the cannon showing their muscled over the crowded ramparts of Fort Monroe, the fleet fired a salute of twenty-one guns, each ship letting go simultaneously.

ON HORIZON.

The first glimpse of the ships today by the President and his guests on the Mayflower, and the thousands who journeyed down to the Virginia capes on the greatest fleet of excursion vessels ever seen in Hampton Roads, was when the black crosses formed by the signal yards at the mastsheads loomed above the horizon.

The day was overcast and gray, so the ships were not clearly distinguishable where water and ship began. The smoke from the fleet mingled with the low-lying clouds and hung like a pall over the approaching vessels. But gradually the white hulls and the buff superstructure of the Connecticut, leading the long column of returning of an old friend. The Alabama is in reserve at the New York navy yard. The strangers in the fleet today were the Nebraska, which replaced the Maine, and the Wisconsin, which replaced the Alabama. Both these vessels were built in the Pacific. They joined the fleet at San Francisco and today made their first appearance in an Atlantic port.

The battleship fleet and its escorting squadron of four battleships and five cruisers arrived at the southern capes, yesterday, and while there, made ready for today's review and inspection.

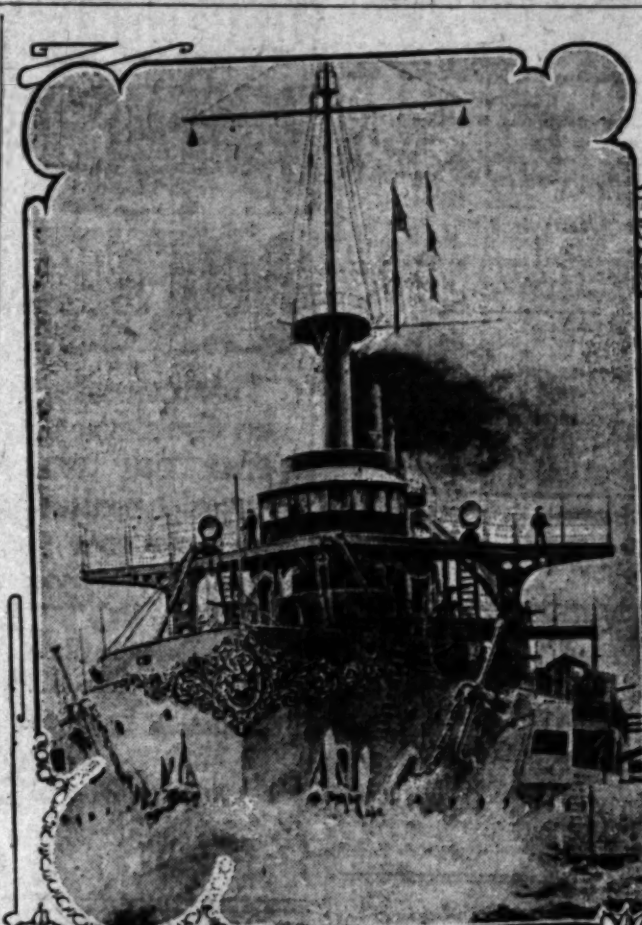

The news that the fleet was almost within sight of the shore, caused intense excitement in all the cities bordering Hampton Roads, and today, at the first streaks of the coming day, residents of Norfolk, Newport News and other near-by places began to make their way to some previously selected point of vantage along the borders of the ocean or bay of Virginia beach, offering the first opportunity for a glimpse of the incoming squadron.

BLACK WITH SPECTATORS.

The ramparts of Fort Monroe were black with spectators, and wherever a place could be found along the water fronted, the eager on-lookers were gathered.

The battleships picked up their regular cruising speed of ten knots an hour early this morning. Brass work was polished to a degree of unequalled brilliancy and wherever paint work had been marred on the journey home, fresh coats of white and buff, applied yesterday, made the ships as immaculate in appearance as they were on that beautiful day in December, 1917, when they sailed away on a world-cruise.

When the battleships pointed their bows at daylight for the gateway of the Potomac, the Mayflower, with the President and his party on board, was steaming down Chesapeake Bay to the anchorage at the tail of the Hornet, where the approaching vessels met. The President had stood on the bridge of the same trim little vessel to rebattleships, and their escort, took form out of the mist. The line of the long straight line was visible when the fleet started the salute to the President's flag, flying at the mast of the Mayflower.

FLASHES THROUGH MIST.

The salute was caught up by every other vessel in the far-drawn horizon, which seemed to disappear down the near distance of the close drawn horizon. The flashes of red fire burning through the mist appeared to extend far over the earth's rim. The roar of the cannon at the height of the volley was deafening, but the noise died away at the finish like distant thunder. The ships finishing the salute of guns some moments before the echoes of the last shots by the trailing escort were heard.

In the wake of the sixteen returning battleships were four other battleships of the home station and five giant cruisers. In the matter of battleships it was the heaviest fleet ever gathered under the flag. The escorting ships were given in the last gray prescribes for all the vessels of the navy, and appeared at a distance to disadvantage alongside the white and buff vessels of the world-girdling squadron. The latter vessels as they neared the harbor for docking, and such minor repairs as are needed, at the end of this memorable voyage of 42,000 miles, will join the company of stay-at-home in their dressing of neutral gray, and one of the distinctive features of the American navy will be that of the past.

LIGHTS DANCE.

Tonight the fleet, once more at home, rests in two long lines. The vessels were brilliantly illuminated during the evening, the outlines of their hulls and their masts and their towering funnels being painted in the brilliant fire of electric bulbs against the black background of the night.

Ashore the admirals and the captains of the fleet, together with two score or more guests, were guests at the annual banquet of the Navy League of the United States.

FINAL THRILLING CHAPTER.

THE BOOM OF THE SUNRISE GUN. OLD POINT COMFORT (Va.) Feb. 22.—The boom of the sunrise gun echoing over the moat of picturesque old Fort Monroe marked the beginning of a day that added another chapter of thrilling beauty and interest to the historic waters of Hampton Roads, first made famous by the battle of the Monitor and the Merrimack. It required a vivid imagination to look back today over a span of forty-four years to picture the fury of that deadly conflict between the two first ironclads of their day and to compare their tiny strength with modern battleships of the class of the Connecticut.

In the battleship and cruiser squadrons that stood by the Mayflower today and saluted the President's flag at the mainmast of the graceful little cruiser-yacht, there were reported 130,000 tons of water displacement.

Every battleship in the navy had a place in the long line. There were twenty of the heavily-belted vessels, fifteen being among the original sixteen that started away fourteen months ago, and both of them and their successors were given all the way around the world, even if they were excluded from the fleet itself.

PACIFIC SHIPS MAKE DEBUT.

The Maine served today as flagship of the squadron of vessels sent to meet the incoming fleet and as the wireless dispatches already have told, she was greeted at sea with all the enthusiasm

view the out-going fleet and bid it God-speed on its epoch-making journey.

On that occasion, the President said the sailing of the fleet meant simply the sending of a homogenous body of warships on an extended practice cruise. It was a matter of ordinary duty, he declared, and he was present to witness the sailing in his capacity as Commander-in-Chief of the army and navy, and to consider the event one of sufficient importance to require a speech or other special ceremony.

GROOM IS SIXTY-FIVE.

SYLVIA GREEN WILL WED WILKS TODAY.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Sylvia Green, daughter of Mrs. Hetty Green, will be married soon after noon tomorrow at her mother's flat in Hoboken, N. J., to Matthew Atter Wilks. The wedding will be a comparatively quiet affair. There will be eighteen or twenty guests, mostly relatives of the bride or bridegroom. Miss Green will be married in street dress. Although Sylvia Green, who will be as fine a trousseau as any wealthy girl married in this country ever packed into her trunks for a wedding journey, Mrs. Green has always been adverse to spending much money on her own clothes, but she has conceded all her daughter's dearest wishes for this great event.

Mrs. Green was opposed to the match from the first. She objected to it, she said, to Mr. Wilks's age. He is 65. She finally consented, however.

If a heart to heart talk, which Mrs. Green had several days ago with her daughter's aunt, the old lady wound up by saying:

"Mr. Wilks, I think you're a pretty young man, but you're 65 years old and you've got the gout. I want to know where money's going to when I am gone. There'll be $500 a day in my pocket. By the way, I'm dead and who's going to look after it?"

"An heir would hold this great fortune intact," said the old lady, "but I don't believe in the bulk of it would not be dispersed. This, I believe, concerns my daughter's happiness also."

Mr. Wilks's physician has not regarded his affection for Mrs. Green as all of a serious nature, and, indeed, is interested more particularly in his patient's affair of the heart. He took the trouble to call on Mrs. Green and assure her that her prospective son-in-law was not ailing, but in good health.

Mrs. Wilks smilingly took Mrs. Green's solicitude in good part, evidencing that if he be troubled with gout it does not affect his disposition.

Mrs. Green is to give her daughter away. Both mother and daughter will be dressed in the direct line of deplorable affair of the heart. He took the trouble to call on Mrs. Green and assure her that her prospective son-in-law was not ailing, but in good health.

OBITUARY.

Capt. W. H. G. Nymmo, NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—Capt. W. H. G. Nymmo, who was in command of the steamboat Island City, which was a supply ship to the famous Monitor during the Civil War, died yesterday at his home in Flushing, L. I. Capt. Nymmo arrived at Hampton Roads with his ship the night before the Monitor met the Merrimack, and was an eye-witness to the now historic action. In conferring the degree upon President Roosevelt, Dr. Needham declared that the faculty and trustees of the university were moved to bestow the honor upon him because of his personal qualities and his achievements in the fields of government and literature. He reviewed Mr. Roosevelt's administration, during which he said, civic and business life had received a strong impulse to higher ethical standards, while methods once common and lawful were now condemned as being contrary to public opinion.

TO NAME SECRETARY.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 22.—The Secretary of the Treasury in the Taft Cabinet will be selected during the stay of the President-elect in New York, whether he will go tomorrow morning to remain until Saturday.

LUCKY TWENTY-THREE.

YOUTHFUL PLASTERER WINS THE MARATHON.

F. M. Low, Nineteen Years Old, Runs Great Race on His Nerve and Outgamed His Opponents—Large Crowd Sees Interesting Contest.

THE prize winners in the Marathon race last night at the Shrine Auditorium finished in the following order:

F. M. Low, unattached, time 2h. 35m. 52s.
Charles Boscha, L.A.A.C., time 2h. 38m. 27s.
R. E. Raynor, unattached, time 2h. 42m. 38s.
Louis Conti, Polytechnic High School, time 2h. 42m. 38s.
Frank C. Rosenauer, Turner, time 2h. 52m. 21s.
N. O. Wenden, unattached, time 2h. 54m. 24s.

F. M. Low, a youngster nineteen years old, of No. 74 East Eighteenth street, who has never participated in athletics, ran away from the field of twenty-five seasoned athletes in the big Marathon race at the Shrine Auditorium under the auspices of the L.A.A.C. last night, and with

to stop running and withdraw from the race. He ran with great effort, seemingly to have sore feet, and on the twelfth lap of his seventh mile he threw up the sponge.

The next man to quit was C. E.

Craig, unattached, who had enough

after he had reeled off ten miles.

Craig started off with long, easy

strides, and led the field for over a mile, and looked like a possible winner on account of his good form, but he did not have the stamina to maintain his gait.

MANY WOMEN PRESENT.

When the runners were grouped at the starting point, nearly every seat

in the great auditorium was occupied.

More than 1000 women were in the audience, and they were keenly interested in the contest. A band was stationed in the center of the main floor

and also in the center of the canvas-

covered circle where the laborious

work of the runners as they jogged around and around the track, was lessened by the music.

The scoring apparatus was arranged

on the platform, and there was an individual score for each runner. The spectators were kept informed at all times as to the number of miles and

laps the athletes had covered.

At 6:07 o'clock Mayor Harper gave the starting signal, and the twenty-

six runners were off. The crowd displayed little enthusiasm during the first mile or two, but as the runners

began to settle down into their regular gait, and it became evident the capabilities of each began to be apparent, the spectators picked various favorites and began to cheer them.

Craig was the first man to have a mile registered for him, and a roar

of applause greeted the appearance of the runner.

JAP HAS STAMINA.

The short, choppy strides of Nishi-

jima, the little Japanese, were contrasted greatly with the long steps of

Craig and most of the other runners,

and the Japanese was soon being encircled by nearly all the other runners.

However, he showed more stamina than any of the men who passed him

early in the race, and while he had no chance of winning a prize, he pluckily

At the end of the first hour Low

was in the lead and had covered eight miles and seven laps. The distance of fifteen and six-tenths miles, the estimated length of the Los Angeles-Venice course, he covered in about the same time as was made in the New York City race, 1h. 45m. As Low

was running indoors, his performance

was excellent. At the end of the second hour he had run sixteen miles

and seven and one-half laps.

John W. Keough entered as a substitute for H. Becker of San Diego, and under the circumstances ran a remarkable race. He was second during the first twenty miles and displayed

building determination to make a showing. He ran with his hands tied behind his back most of the time in order not to use any unnecessary energy

in running.

Edward Dietrich ran a gritty race,

but was unable to show in the prize-winning places. He ran fast in the early part of the contest and was well

among the leaders, but he dropped back as the race progressed. However,

he stayed with it to the end and finished the last lap eating a cornucopia.

During the first ten miles every runner jogged, and it was not until the beginning of the eleventh mile that any one slackened into a walk.

The race did not end until after 12

o'clock, when the last man, barely under the four-hour limit, finished.

NORTHERN MARATHON.
HEAVY TRACK DISHEARTENS.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SEATTLE (Wash.) Feb. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Over a track inches deep with clay and loose cinders, Will Chandler, a Vancouver athlete, today took first honors in the first Washington Marathon. His time was 2h. 42m. 15 2-5s, but he could easily have bettered this if he had been closely pushed. His only real rival, Clarence Cool, of the State College, was run off his feet at the twenty-third mile and forced to quit.

Fred Walby of the Portland Y.M.C.A. was second, finishing eleven laps behind Chandler and more than half an hour later. Walter Sperry, of the Seattle Athletic Club, was third, the others quitting. A chilly rain and driving wind made the weather conditions terrible for a long grind.

Chandler and Johnson, also of Vancouver, set a hot pace from the start, and were never headed, except once when Harvey Donaldson, of the Seattle Y.M.C.A., made a plucky spurt and managed to get almost a lap ahead. Chandler picked this up easily, how-

SAINTS LOSE TO BERKELEY.

Poor Support Offsets Good Work in the Box.

Ybarra Pitches Well and Allows Few Hits.

California Steadies Against Boisterous Rooting.

University of California, 8; St. Vincent's College, 1.

The St. Vincent's baseball players gave Ybarra, their captain and pitcher, poor support in the second and last game with the University of California at Chutes Park yesterday afternoon, and although he out-pitched White, the Blue and Gold twirler, the visitors easily won the game.

The California team played an even game, and although the local men had little difficulty in connecting with White's slow delivery, they did not get a hit until the eighth inning.

The California handlings of their chances faultlessly, and pulled White out of several bad holes. White gave eight bases on balls, while Ybarra had excellent control and did not walk a man.

The weather was ideal for baseball, and about 1000 spectators were in the stand. The St. Vincent's rooters, 200 strong, maintained a continuous roar. Megaphones and cowbells added to the din, and although the California team showed signs of going up in the air several times, the men were less bothered by the rooting than in the first game.

A party of California alumni, including many young men, occupied the grand stand. They did not attempt to cope with the local rooters in cheering, but flaunted a conspicuous display of California colors.

HITS HEAVILY.
Myers, the big California first baseman, led the batting, with a double and a single that figured largely in the scoring. Smith also knocked out a brace of hits when they were needed, and the timely batting of the two men, together with the Saints' mis-play at critical moments, was mainly responsible for California's runs.

Each team had one big inning. California scored one run in the first, second and sixth innings, but the team made a killing of five tallies in the seventh inning that clinched the game. The Saints, after failing to register a hit or run during the first seven innings, found White for four hits in the eighth period, and got three men across the plate.

Myers, the first man up for California in the first inning, rapped a two-bagger down the third base line after Ybarra had two strikes on him, and on errors by Ybarra, Sullivan and O'Connor, got home. White got a two-bagger in the third inning, and Myers was safe on Hickson's error. White going to third, Smith bunted, and White was caught at the plate, but Myers scored when O'Connor threw to first to get Smith. Sullivan failed to handle Smith's mis-play, and the runner was home. Steele got to first on Hickson's error, and Smith scored on the play.

The St. Vincent's rooters yelled wildly for a run every time the home team came to bat, but the ill-edged fielding of the Californians killed the Saints' prospects until the visitors had accumulated a safe margin.

UNLUCKY SEVENTH.
The seventh inning was the big event of the game. In spite of the

sive Dispatch.] On Christian Brothers' College campus this afternoon 500 students of the parochial schools here contested in long-distance events.

The three-mile race, 232 athletes contested, was won by Charles McAnany, time, 16m. 28s. The second race, of five miles, for boys under 14 years, 185 contestants, was won by John Mallory, time, 27m. 28s.

The third race, 22 contestants, five miles, ages 12 and 18, was won by Cassidy, time, 27m. 28s. Exler Ben's time was 27m. 28s., but he was disqualified.

LOS ANGELES REVOLVER CLUB WINS
Springfield Team on a Technicality.

Because one of the members of the Springfield Club at Springfield, Mass., shot with a pistol instead of a revolver in the match shoot with the Los Angeles Revolver Club recently, the local club is accredited the winner of the contest by a margin of three points.

According to the regulations of revolver matches, when a member shoots with a pistol instead of a revolver, two points are deducted for every ten-shot string. The original score of the club shoot was previously announced was 249 to 245. As the Los Angeles club team used revolvers exclusively the score of 245 stands, while the Springfield team forfeited six points, thus reducing their score to 249 to 245.

Following are the scores made by the Springfield and Los Angeles Revolver Club in the contest with the Los Angeles club:

desperate yelling of the local rooters the Californians turned the tables and sent the home team into the air. A balloon ascension at the Chutes occurred during the Saints' bad inning, and the parachute descended in the diamond. The parachute team, which ascension also dropped in the ground, temporarily stopping the game.

The seventh inning, Stoner and Foraker, the first two batters up for California, were hit by pitched balls. White bunted safe and the bases were full. Myers singled to left field, scoring Stoner and Foraker, and Smith bunted. White and Myers reaching home on a wild throw to first. Lewis bunted and Smith scored. The Saints then settled down and retired the side.

Wise Talks By The "Office Boy"

"You send me violets every morning," said the beautiful girl. "I do," responded the agent, "no matter what they cost." "Quite so. Now, why not send up a bunch of violets tomorrow instead? It would be just as expensive and would make a big hit with Pa." Did you ever notice that when an old man who has a few of his kind that make you look like thirty cents? They say a man may get rich by attending strictly to his business, but the money must be something fierce. Oh, if I didn't have the Silverwood Store to talk about every day, I'd be like the old man. I'm in a set of her own. We're getting in loads of new goods every day. Why, even the straw hats are coming in. We got in thirty or forty cases of straw hats last week. The new shirts are awfully nice. My, but we sell an awful lot of Manhattan shirts. They're the best shirts to be had. Wouldn't you like to see some of the new spring neckwear, shirts, hats, suits and things? The salesman would be awfully glad to show you through. You'd be under no obligation to buy. We treat folks just the same, whether looking or buying. We have one price. No favorite customers. Home folks buy goods just as cheap as the outside. Oh, and vice versa. We guarantee every article we sell and recall it and replace or refund your money, if it fails to make good. Either store.

More than 1000 tickets have been sold for the ball that is to be given at the Elks Club, tonight, by the girls who had charge of the grocery store at the Elks' "Harvest Festival." The proceeds will be added to the Shrine Christmas charity fund. Three more balls are planned, all for generous purposes. The next one will be for the benefit of the Italian earthquake sufferers.

Church Federation Council.

At a meeting of the Church Federation Council yesterday the following committee was appointed to confer with Billy Sunday with reference to the possibility of securing him for a series of meetings in this city next fall: Rev. E. P. Ryland, Dr. McClatch, Walter H. Fisher, W. E. McVay and J. G. Warren. A strong resolution was also adopted, calling for a fairer interpretation of the Chinese exclusion laws.

Lieut. Dixon Surprised.

A surprise party was tendered by Roosevelt Auxiliary No. 100 to Lieut. Charles E. Dixon, Post Commander of Admiral Glenn Camp, at his home, No. 232 North Avenue 23, on Saturday evening. A pleasant evening was spent and refreshments were served. The president of the auxiliary then presented to Lieut. Dixon a handsome basket of flowers, while the hostess of the evening gave him a handsome plush box, containing a rare plant of South California. The latter brief remarks by Lieut. C. E. Dixon of acceptance, the floor was cleared and games and cards were enjoyed.

Paying Off in "Quarters."

The Pico Heights Methodist Church recently started on a campaign to raise 4000 quarter-dollars to pay off an old note standing against the church property when the present pastor, Dr. J. A. Wood, took charge of the work. Last night they held the jubilee meeting and took in the "quarters." While not quite what they thought, they raised almost 3000, which will pay off the note of 3700 and accrued interest. There is yet a debt of $600 on the church and an effort will be made to clear off the whole thing. Dr. Wood is able and popular and the congregation, while neither large nor wealthy, has come nobly to his support.

THE RECALL. SOCIALISTS NAME WHEELER.

PUT UP CANDIDATE OF THEIR OWN FOR MAYOR.

Officials of Engstrom Company Express Humbly "Poll" of the "Herald." Declare That Nearly All Their Men Are Against the Recall—Alexander's Petition to Be Filed.

Hurrying to name their candidate before the entries for the recall free-for-all close today, the socialists met at Labor Temple last night and selected Fred C. Wheeler, arch red and unionist agitator, as their choice for Mayor. The convention was composed of eighty-five delegates and the candidate was chosen unanimously, and put on a platform voicing the usual socialist demands, and adding a few, such as a call for a free lodging-house for the unemployed.

Wheeler accepted the nomination, and said he would at once place in the hands of the socialist committee his resignation as Mayor; for, he said, he would be elected, with the state of the resignation blank so that if he proved faithless, the committee could work a recall on him automatically without going through the form required by the charter.

Wheeler took a few raps at the meeting of "Our Set" at Blanchard Hall when "Uncle George" was nominated by the pink socks. He said the capitalist class ruled that gathering and that the working men were shut out; yet this very set was making use, for corrupt purposes, of the socialist recall principle.

ALEXANDER PETITION. Canvassers for names to the Alexander petition were busy in all parts of the city yesterday, asking voters to subscribe. It was a mad rush, as the petition must be filed today, this being the thirtieth day before the election, and must contain 500 names. The recallists invaded the Iowa picnic at Agricultural Park, against the wishes of the association, and solicited signatures. It was announced last night that 2000 names had been gained in the city, and that the petition will be filed today.

The socialist candidate will be certified through the convention officers, as the party cast more than 3 per cent. of the total vote at the last city election.

BOGUS "POLL."

That alleged "poll" of the employees of the P. O. Engstrom Company, published by a morning paper Sunday, which showed that of the "sixty-five" employees of this company not one was for Mayor Harper, and nearly all were for Alexander, is reported by officers of the company. Instead of employing sixty-five men the Engstrom company employs between 100 and 120 men. H. V. Bryson, manager of the company, says they are, almost without exception, against the recall.

PRECINCT CANVASS.

A canvass of a precinct in the Fourth Ward, reported to Secretary Cornish of the Business Men's Organization, which is fighting the recall, shows that of 235 votes in the precinct 113 are against the recall, 27 favor Alexander, and 95 are noncommittal. Only 153 voters were interrogated.

SEVEN DIE IN WRECK.

Flames Burst Out Following Head-on Collision—Excursionists Going to Williams Atlantic Fleet.

(Associated Press Day Service.) DELMAR (Del.) Feb. 22.—Seven men were killed or burned to death early today in a head-on collision between an excursion train and two locomotives on the Delaware division of the Pennsylvania Railroad. Two passengers were injured.

The dead are:

OLIVER PERRY, express messenger. J. D. McCREADY, baggage man. GEORGE E. DAVIS, baggage man. W. T. CORKRAN, mail clerk. J. W. WOOD, mail clerk. D. M. DAVIS, mail clerk. WILLIAM, mail weigh man. Princess Trilix, the famous educated horse, was burned to death. She had been known all over the world by her owner, Harrison Barnes. She had appeared three times before King Edward each time receiving a handsome present from His Majesty.

The train was crowded with passengers bound for Wilmington, Del., to witness the home coming of the battleship fleet.

The wreck immediately took fire, and it was impossible to rescue them under the wreckage.

MRS. J. HAM LEWIS ROBBED.

Six Thousand Five Hundred Dollars' Worth of Gems Stolen from Statehouse on Liner.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) LONDON, Feb. 22.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Mrs. James Hamilton Lewis of Chicago, who is at the Hotel Cecil in this city, lost $5000 worth of jewelry while crossing the Atlantic. The circumstances of the theft have not been made known by Mrs. Lewis. She does not know who stole the property, although she is inclined to suspect a passenger who landed at Quentown. Mrs. Lewis remained a few days in Liverpool to lay the matter before the steamship company, which is causing an investigation to be made. All the articles stolen have been listed at the New York custom house, with photographs of some of them.

CHEER DEMAND FOR CITY'S BIRTHRIGHT.

Great Demonstration at Chamber of Commerce Banquet in Behalf of Consolidation—Leaders in Prosper-perity Go on Record.

WITH ringing cheers and a remarkable burst of applause, 400
members of the Chamber of Commerce present at last night's annual banquet passed a strong resolution in favor of the consolidation bill.
It was a remarkable demonstration. In the midst of the feast at Levy's, Stoddard Jess, who was sitting some distance from the head table, arose and asked to be heard. Curiously to hear what he had to say stirred the clatter
of dishes and the buzz of conversation.
"While sitting here, it occurred to me that an expression of our sentiment
regarding consolidation would not be amiss," began Mr. Jess. "Some who could not hear him cried: 'Out of order.' But the keen ears of President Stewart caught the purport of the message. 'No resolution regarding consolidation is ever out of order,' he shouted. There was an immediate clapping of hands and cheers.
Mr. Jess then read the following resolution, which he had hastily scribbled upon his menu card: 'Whereas,
the board of directors of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce by formal resolution and by active personal effort have given their hearty support to the consolidation bill as originally introduced and now before the Legislature, now be it resolved by the members of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, assembled at their annual banquet, that the action of the board of directors in supporting and working for the passage of said bill be and the same hereby is heartily approved, ratified and endorsed."

No sooner had Mr. Jess finished reading his resolution than a score of men arose to second the motion. Fielding J. Stilson was recognized by the president. The motion was then put and carried unanimously. Secretary Wiggins at once had some of his assistants go from table to table securing signatures to be added to the telegram
sent to the Southern California delegation at Sacramento. The dispatch will reach the legislators this morning
and will show the sentiment of the business men of this city in regard to consolidation.

UNQUALIFIED SUCCESS.
The banquet was an unqualified success. The speakers had stirring messages for those present and many were
the references to the great prosperity
of this city at the present time.
Toasts were drunk standing. In Washington, to President Roosevelt and President-elect Taft. A vote of thanks was extended to the retiring president, George H. Stewart, for his

BUILDING MATERIAL IS DELIVERED FREE.

THE available supply of building material for all kinds of concrete and cobblestone work has been greatly increased during the past two weeks. Thousands of tons of gravel and boulders have been brought down
from the hills by the heavy freights,
and have lodged along the channel of
the Los Angeles River and Arroyo Seco.
Almost all of the sand, gravel and crushed stone used in rearing the great number of reinforced concrete and steel-frame concrete structures, as well as for the paving of streets in this city, has been taken from the Los Angeles River. In fact so much material has been hauled away that the city authorities had begun to worry about the bridge supports, as the bed of the river had been lowered several feet.
Cobblestones had become so scarce
that many of the hauling companies had hired special gangs of men to gather them along unfrequented
parts of the river bed.
Along the Arroyo Seco three great pits of several acres in extent had been excavated by the Santa Fe and Salt Lake railroads, and the Pacific Crushed Rock Company. Several requests had been made to the City Council for an ordinance prohibiting further removal of gravel from certain sections, and this was about to be passed.
But now all is changed. There is gravel and to spare. The torrent of water that destroyed several bridges
along the Arroyo Seco brought down enough sand and rock to supply the railroads for the damage wrought.
In many places drifts of fine gravel six feet deep were left by the flood, and along the bed of the Los Angeles
River near Elysian Park, fully 100,000 yards of sand and gravel were deposited. The same thing happened in lesser degree along the full length of the river bed clear to Ninth street,
many of the pits being filled or partly filled with a fresh supply of building material.

SENSATIONAL FINISH GIVES CROWD THRILL.

Twenty Thousand People See "Jackrabbit Win Dangerous Race Up Pasadena-Altadena Grade—Spectator Narrowly Escapes Death.

THE Apperson "Jackrabbit" driven by Edgar Apperson, won the annual Pasadena-Altadena automobile hill-climbing contest yesterday afternoon in a sensational finish, defying the fast high-powered Stearns, driven by Barney Oldfield, the Stoddard-Dayton, Chalmers-Detroit and Franklin "Greyhound" in the record-breaking time of 1m. 24s.
Apperson bettered the course record of 1m. 34 1/2s. made with the same make of car last year, by twelve and one-fourth seconds, while the Stearns, which was also second last year, clipped six and three-fourths seconds from the 1908 record, making the run in 1m. 29 1/2s., and bettering the mark of 1m. 50 1/2s. made in the race last year, by twenty-one seconds. The course is one and three-fourths miles in length.
The Stanley Steamer, which was expected by many to defeat all comers in the free-for-all event, was scratched from the race, owing to an accident in a trial run before the contest, when Owner Hoxey, in giving the machine a quick start, stripped its gearing, thereby forfeiting $50 entry fee and losing the opportunity to beat the high-powered gasoline cars.
The regular driver was P. J. Beaudetle, who made marvelous speed in practice.
Twenty thousand persons saw the contest, which was proclaimed the most successful hill-climbing programme ever run off in the West.
Thirty-five cars were entered in the eleven events, and without exception
the results registered by the winning cars were better than the time made in last year's contest.

ALMOST FATAL.

Considering the poor police surveillance of the course, it was miraculous that not a single catastrophe marred the run, yet one narrowly-averted accident caused the spectators to turn from the scene in horror as the intended victim stumbled to safety.

Spectators had crowded onto the course near the finish to watch the race in the stretch. One daring enthusiast elbowed his way to the center of the road after the Apperson had started on its record trip. On climbed the "Jackrabbit," developing the space at a frightful rate, and before the daring spectator had reached the center of the road the glaring
red-die racer swung around the turn into the stretch.

The man rushed back toward the curve but was almost too late. Apperson lost a second as he swerved his car wide to avoid killing the foolhardy
spectator and he nearly missed crashing into the ditch at the side of the course.
The car regained its equilibrium in a fraction of a second, however, and careened at a fearful speed toward the finish.

There was a mighty cheer as Apperson swept past the margin of five and
one-half seconds it made the victory
of the time-eating "Jackrabbit" even
more wonderful.
Bert Dingley, in the Chalmers-Detroit
"Bluebird," drove a splendid race in
this event. His Chalmers is a stock
car, and was entered in a race against
stripped roadsters. Dingley manipulated his fast car over the course in

Stearns operator just nineteen seconds
to negotiate the first leg of the course to the straight-away leading to the railroad crossing, while the Apperson covered the same distance in fourteen seconds flat, a remarkable performance, five seconds faster than any other car has ever done.

OLDFIELD DRIVES.

Once around the first turn Oldfield regained his high speed and the big Stearns began to rear and bound over the run as if possessed of a bound demon. Oldfield drove like a mad and took wonderful chances, but he could not make up the precious seconds he had lost at the start.

The interest of the day centered in the struggle between the big cars. The race was unlimited and there were no
restrictions as to horse-power, drivers,
or price of cars. The Chalmers-Detroit, Stearns, Stoddard-Dayton and Apperson lined up for the result, with the Stearns was favored, and the Apperson heavily backed to place, while the Stoddard-Dayton and Chalmers-Detroit, both of which had been making good time, were dogged to fight out
the second honors.

Frank Siefert, in the Stoddard-Dayton, went away first. He tore to the initial turn with a splendid burst of speed, took it in a cloud of dust, and raced away for the bridge. He hit the planks at sixty miles an hour, and without hesitating went at the last leg. As he neared the last turn two of the cylinders began to misfire, and when Siefert crossed the line his motor was only hitting on three cylinders. His time was good and equaled Apperson's
last year's record. The Stoddard climbed the hill in 1 minute, 31 1/4 seconds.

The Apperson was the next to get away. The car left the line at exactly 2:17 o'clock. It seemed scarcely a breath of time before the exhaust of the car could be heard on the grade and at 2:18:24 Apperson shot across the line a winner.

The Stearns left the line at 2:18
o'clock and Oldfield was given a rouling send-off. It was of no avail, however, as Barney could not make the big race respond as he had the day previous. At that he went to the turn faster than any other car except the Apperson, but his race was lost within 30 yards of the start.

WONDERFUL DRIVING.

Oldfield treated the spectators on the middle of the hill to a wonderful exhibition of driving. He jockeyed the big Stearns over the course at a terrific clip and tried, as few drivers
could, to make up for the lost seconds.
He took the bridge faster than a mile
a minute, and went to the last turn
like a scared greyhound.

It was at this turn that Oldfield showed his class. He shot the car to the corner, with inches to spare, as he made the swing into the stretch.
There were those among the judges who believed the Stearns had won before the official time was announced.
When it was seen that Apperson was winner by the margin of five and
one-half seconds it made the victory
of the time-eating "Jackrabbit" even
more wonderful.

Bert Dingley, in the Chalmers-Detroit
"Bluebird," drove a splendid race in
this event. His Chalmers is a stock
car, and was entered in a race against
stripped roadsters. Dingley manipulated his fast car over the course in

RECLAIMING THE DESERT.

Randolph and His Associates to Place Large Area in Arizona Under Irrigation.

Col. Elmer Randolph is at the head of a party of Tucson people who have organized a company, and will reclaim a large area of desert land in the Territory and place under irrigation.

The company has been busy for some time constructing an immense dam and reservoir ten miles long and three wide, thirty miles northwest of Tucson, near the railroad station of Paschoa.

The dam is to be constructed across a natural basin, and diversion dams built to divert the flood waters from the Santa Cruz river to bring under irrigation 16,000 acres of arid soil.

The water, under the pressure of gravity, will fall, producing any kind of growth that grows in the climate. The section is sparsely settled at present, owing to the scarcity of water, but a number of colonists to take up the land have been located, and will be fifteen or twenty miles from the dam.

The back pack of the project is made of fine sand, and is composed of the following: Gen. L. H. Manning, Victor Griffith, S. J. Forbes and other well-known Tucson men.

YOUNG WIFE DISAPPEARS.

Young Husband Adopts Another But Uncle of Missing Woman Appeals to Sheriff.

Burt J. Bell of Sawtelle appealed to Sheriff Hammel yesterday for assistance in locating the whereabouts of a niece, Mrs. Ada Young, wife of George Young, a real estate dealer at that place.

It is claimed that the Youngs did not get along very well, and that about three weeks ago Young threw his wife out of the house. Ten days later the wife was married to another man, and the wife had become anxious for her safety. The missing woman is but 19 years of age, and has been married about three years ago. They have no children.

Bell also makes the charge that the wife disappeared from Young's house. He says that Young's husband took up with a Mexican man at Sawtelle, and is now living

The Wisconsin Legislature, which is making the results of the direct primary, has received testimony from one of the United States Senators that he has $50,000 during his campaign, and that, in his opinion, $100,000 could be expended. Warner's Rust-Proof Corsets

Style 187, for the Stout Woman with rather Short-Waist Figure. The long, deep boned skirt with the straight clasp suppresses the abdomen and flattens the hips. There are three broad rust-proof side steels that cannot break or punch through and a double set of strong, wide elastics. The Security Rubber Button Hose Supporters.

Style 187, Coutille, $2.00.

That Tip-Top Feeling

That Tip-Top Feeling in the morning comes from starting the breakfast with H-O, the Oatmeal that is steam-cooked for three hours at the mill before you get it, making it wholesome, nourishing and easily digested.

It's the only cooked oatmeal sold as different from ordinary "rolled oats" as cream is different from white-wash. Physicians prescribe it for delicate patients, and it's the delight of hearty folk who like a hot, wholesome, filling breakfast. Fifteen minutes' boiling prepares it for the table. Ask your grocer for H-O.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES IN FAVOR OF BOND ELECTION.

Notes to Raise Two Hundred Thousand Dollars for High and Grammar Buildings—Pioneer Dies Suddenly—Alleged Moonshiner Arrested
in Coalinga Admits Identity.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.
FRESNO, Feb. 22.—In order to meet
the pressing needs of the schools,
the trustees of the local district have decided to issue a call for a bond election to be held near the close of the regular city election.
Amount of bonds will in all probability be $200,000, half of which will be used this year.
Members of the board are all in favor of this move, and at the meeting this week the call for a bond election in all probability be forwarded.
The election is carried, the first step will be used to double the size of the large grammar schools.
The trustees of the board
graciously increase the High School. If the work cannot be done in one year it will be necessary to use the regular school funds.
The result of this election should be to increase the salaries of the teachers of the local schools as well as to carry the board will be unable to meet the demands.
The rapid increase in the schools of Fresno during the past fifteen months
has caused the members of the board to try to meet the demand. One of the difficulties was added last year, and practically every other year the board has been outgrown, and the difficulty is to erect another building or double the size of one of the present structures.

ure late last night, while standing in front of the stove at his home, and fell to the floor, dying almost instantly. He had just returned from a meeting at the Christian Church, and was talking to his wife
when death came. He leaves five children, among whom is George M. Boies, proprietor of one of the largest meat markets in this city.

ALLEGED MOONSHINERS.
Zeb Young, a young man, who for several months has been in the employ of the Main Oil Company of Coalinga as a tool dresser, was arrested in that town late yesterday by Deputy United States Marshal Joseph Coyle on a warrant charging him with illicit whisky distilling in Jackson county, Tennessee. Young was brought to this city and lodged in the County Jail.
The alleged moonshiner is charged with having on October 2, 1908, carried on the business of distilling spirituous liquors without having given a bond required by law, and with unlawfully removing the spirits from the distillery on which no sign was placed as required by law. A third charge is that he delivered the raw material to and worked in the distillery where the sign was lacking.
An indictment against Young was found by a Federal grand jury in the Middle Federal District of Tennessee.
Jan. Way, an alleged partner in the business, also indicted, was captured,
but Young fled to this State.
The warrant was transferred to United States Dist. Atty. Lawlor in Los Angeles, who forwarded it to Coyle for service, with a copy of the indictment which contains several corrections.
An inclosed letter stated that Zeb
Young, alias Z. B. Young, was imprisoned at "Ogden" in Fresno county along with several other people from Jackson county, and that a son, Tom Young, worked in a shop in the same county. A detailed description of the wanted man was forwarded. Armed with this and using a little strategy,
the former President of Venezuela
is planning to return to that country and resume the position of a private citizen. Some time ago he sent a letter to President Gomez setting forth his purpose of returning and voluntarily retiring from the Presidency, but he has received no reply.

SWELL CRY FOR GOOD STREETS.

FARMERS AND TOWNSPEOPLE
ASKED FOR SUGGESTIONS.

Chamber of Commerce and City Trustees Take Up the Matter—Ly-moore's Oiled Thoroughfares Attract Considerable Attention—Fish Ladder Agitation Is Successful.
SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.
HANFORD, Feb. 20.—Good roads and good streets occupy the attention of King county people. The roads have never been near perfection and the recent heavy rainfall brought this forcibly to the notice of the residents.
The Chamber of Commerce has issued a call for suggestions from the farmers as well as city residents on good roads—the kinds of highways best suited and obtainable at a cost not prohibitive and the best way of raising the funds for their construction. Several letters have already been received and the general opinion expressed in them is that better roads
are necessary and bonds for their construction will be voted after a definite plan of building them has been determined upon by the Supervisors.
The Hanford Trustees are making a personal canvass of the taxpayers on the good-roads proposition. Lemoore, in this county, has oiled streets that have attracted considerable attention
and are said to be unusually hard and durable, while not very expensive. The Trustees will inspect them.
ATTAINS OBJECT.
The petition to the State Fish Commission emanating from a meeting of local sportsmen, has had its effect. It appears that the object of the resolution—the rigid enforcement of the law
requiring the installation of "fish ladders" around dams and other obstructions in the streams—will be attained.
In answer to the petition, Deputy Commissioner Ferguson of Fresno was commissioned to represent the State board
at the adjourned meeting of the sportsmen. He said that as soon as the water in the streams lowered he would visit the various dams and weirs and determine the kind of ladders to be constructed, and then see that they were built.

The followers of the rod and reel
sport have not only obtained the object of their cooperation, but from the meeting has sprung an organization of sportsmen for the protection of fish and game in this county. A committee of the sportsmen is now at work and its report is rendered Wednesday night organization will be perfected. Another result of the "fish ladder" agitation is a movement for the securing of a State game farm for this county. Several farmers have offered their places for this purpose and there is little doubt that it will be secured.
EUCALYPTUS VENTURE.
Dr. Ulysses V. Wythe and wife and
Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Clark, all of Los Angeles, have taken the initial step in what promises to be a successful venture of large proportions. This action was the filing of desert land entries on territory in this county on the west side. They expect to purchase considerable land here, it is said.
RECLAMATION WORK OPENS.
Payette-Boise Project in Idaho One of Largest Undertakings of Government.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
BOISE (Idaho) Feb. 22.—Five thousand people, including representatives of the Reclamation Service, Gov. Brady
and members of the Idaho Legislature, witnessed today the formal opening of the Payette-Boise project, one of the largest reclamation works undertaken
by the Federal government.
When the headgates of the canal
were raised, the waters of the Boise Valley were diverted to more than 20,000 acres. The scene of the ceremony was at the big dam, eight miles above Boise, which provides the source of water for the south side section of the project. From this point the water is diverted into canal systems covering Ada and Cato counties.
One canal carries water to the Deer Flat reservoir, which is the largest artificial body of water in the world.
This reservoir will be filled before the irrigation season begins, and waters
will be stored for use during the dry season.

Calumet avenue, in their new Cadillac automobile, and went first to the J. W. Robinson Company's store on South Broadway. While Mrs. Bowen
was shopping her husband walked around to the jewelry store of George
L. Bannister on South Spring street, and discussed politics for a short time.
A few minutes after Mr. Bowen left the store, Mr. and Mrs. Bannister started for a short walk, and at Brooklyn and Third street met Mr.
Bowen. He was pale and Mr. Bannister says he saw at once that his friend was a very sick man. Bowen had time to mention Dr. Salisbury, and lapsed into unconsciousness. With the help of bystanders Mr. Bowen was taken to the office in the Bradbury building, but Dr. Salisbury was absent, and Dr. Joseph Ross, Dr. P. E.
Frost, and later several other physicians were called. Mrs. Bowen was also sent for.
Restored to consciousness Mr. Bowen asked to be taken home and that he be given a drink of whisky. This was sent for, but before it could be procured he was taken with another attack and he sank into an unconsciousness from which he never railed. The body was taken to the home he had left in the morning, apparently in splendid health. Mrs.
Bowen reached the side of her husband just before his death.
Calvin C. Bowen was born near La Porte, Ind., August 1, 1865, and as a boy worked on his father's farm. He attended the common schools and the normal school at Lebanon, Ohio, and then came to California, where he attended Washington College. At this time he felt called to the ministry in the Christian Church, and entered the Bible department of the University of Kentucky at Lexington. For several years he acted as a regularly ordained minister in churches in the East and in California.
Later Mr. Bowen took up the study of law and graduated from the law department of Drake University at Des Moines, Iowa, in 1894, and came at once to Los Angeles, where he opened a law office in the Bradbury building at the time of his death.
Mr. Bowen was prominently mentioned for appointment to one of the judgeships in the local Superior Court. He was also closing a half-million dollar deal in an Arizona copper mine.

Mr. Bowen was a member of Los Angeles Commandery No. 8, Knights Templars; Al Malaikah Temple, Ancient Order of the Mystic Shrine; Los Angeles Lodge No. 92, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, and of the bar association. These orders will take part in the funeral ceremonies,
which will be held tomorrow at 1 p.

An effort was made yesterday to communicate with Attorney William
M. Bowen, brother of the dead man, who recently secured the passage of the bill for an appropriation for the building up of Agricultural Park. Late last evening Mr. Bowen was located in San Francisco and will start early this morning for Los Angeles.
The funeral will be held at the residence, No. 1423 Calumet avenue, Rev.
Dr. J. P. McKnight of the Magnolia
Avenue Christian Church will officiate,
and the burial will be in Rosedale Cemetery, where services will be conducted by the Knights Templars.

1897, to Miss Rosella Booth at Napa,

Miss Edythe Bowen, is living.

Johns Hopkins University Gets New Million-Dollar Clinic from Henry Phipps of New York.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
BALTIMORE (Md.) Feb. 22.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) There was surprise at the Commemoration Day exercises at Johns Hopkins University today when
Dr. William Welch of the Hopkins Hospital and University announced that the gift of Henry Phipps of New York for a psychiatric clinic and hospital will amount to more than $1,000,000.
No amount had been specified by Mr.
Phipps, who merely offered to fully equip an institution erected on the lines suggested by the doctors associated with Dr. Welch in preparing the plans. The architect prepared plans for a building far more extensive than Dr. Welch had contemplated, but the plans were approved by Mr. Phipps, who directed Dr. Welch and his associates to go ahead.
The gift will permit a clinic for the study of mental diseases and insanity,
and a hospital which will become part of the Johns Hopkins Hospital and University.
The British steamer Empress of China from Hongkong for Vancouver before reported, arrived at Kobe after having been ashore, and will be tem-

Los Angeles County—Its Cities and Towns. NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

PASADENA. MERSEREAU MAY BE INELIGIBLE.

IS HE QUALIFIED TO RUN FOR THE MAYOR'S CHAIR?

Leading Attorney of Los Angeles City, Mr. W. H. Mages, has been asked by Judge Mages to put forward the latter's claim. "Early's Narrow Escape."

Office of The Times, No. 25 S. Raymond Ave. PASADENA, Feb. 22—Those who favor the candidacy for Mayor of Councilman Mersereau and the friends of Judge W. H. Mages will be represented by committees which will meet this morning in the Board of Trade room to discuss whether efforts on behalf of Mersereau shall be dropped. This meeting is necessitated by the opinion given by Attorney Hunsaker of Los Angeles, that according to his view, the councilman is ineligible to run for office. Attorney Benjamin F. Hahn of this city has also handed down a similar opinion, but City Atty. Perry Wood believes Mersereau is eligible and prefers taking the case to the Supreme Court. The question involved is as to whether five years' residence in Los Angeles is required. Mersereau claims to have lived here five years, but did not sign the great register for some time after his arrival. An Judge Mages withdrew from the mayoralty race only on condition that Councilman Mersereau is to run, he is now practically a candidate and will be supported by a number of men who are not favorable to Mersereau on account of his alleged leaning to what might be termed the "longhair" element.

FORTUNATE ESCAPE. Mayor and Mrs. Early narrowly escaped serious injury just as they were leaving the end of the Pasadena-Alhambra hill climb course following the last race yesterday afternoon. Their electric runabout was at one side of the road and about to be turned about to come toward town. In making the turn Mayor Early backed up and the whole car pitched in the air. As the machine was started forward the heavy weight at the rear and the action of the wheels caused the front part of the vehicle to rise in the air. His Honor and his wife were fortunate enough to roll out of the rear end of the vehicle before the machine came clear over. Neither was injured and afterward the vehicle was righted. Although the machine was damaged, Mayor Early coasted the machine to Pasadena, where he took a car for home. Mr. Early came back in the machine of a friend.

DAYLIGHT BURGLARY. Following a fruitless investigation by the police, the press was allowed to amuse last night the portion of one of the boldest burglaries done in Pasadena this season. On Sunday probably while the owners of the house were at church, burglars entered the home of Mrs. A. K. Day at No. 484 Alhambra avenue, and secured jewelry and other articles valued at $100. A gold watch and diamond bracelet were among the most valued items.

BUILDING RECORD. Already the building record for February is $12,195 more than for the whole of the corresponding month of 1928. Permits taken out yesterday bring the sum up to $24,903 for the month, which is exceptional considering the weather and number of permits. Nearly every permit is for a substantial building.

CO. I CAMPS OUT. Capt. Hutchins of Co. I returned to the armory on Union street last night, with forty-four men under his command, all in perfect health and the felle, after a two days' camp at Tournament Park. The camp was chosen because it is best adapted to the needs of the company, the grass at Devil's Gate being too long to furnish a convenient marching field.

JUVENILE BENCH SHOW. Society enjoyed a novel entertainment yesterday afternoon at the juvenile bench show, which was given by the San Gabriel Valley Club in the garage of Thaddeus Lowe, Garfield avenue, by fifteen or twenty youngsters of South Pasadena. Forfeiture was the dog-fancier of Bradford street, was appointed judge, and two handsome calves were awarded, one in the sporting class and one in the non-sporting class. There were fourteen calves displayed, and the blue ribbon winners at this second annual show were: Beagle Hound, Florence Lowe; Japanese Spaniel, Mrs. Davis; Black and Tan, Mrs. R. J. Dobbin; Irish Setter, Elizabeth Munsell. The silver cups were won by Florence Lowe in the non-sporting class, and by Emmet Lowe in the sporting class. A large society representation present.

BAL POUDRE. Washington's Birthday was appropriately celebrated at the Valley Hunt Club yesterday evening, with a bal poudre, when 150 members and their friends appeared in Colonial or modern costume with powdered hair, rouge and patches.

PALMS, GARLANDS OF amaranth dotted with marguerites, flowers, red and white, festooned with blue to suggest national colors, were used in decoration, and everything Colonial in the way of accessories furnishings was made conspicuous. Dancing was enjoyed in the ballroom, which was gay with flowers of red and white. Miss Alice Alden and Miss Louise Barber presided over the coffee and tea service. Music was furnished by De Nubla's Orchestra, and festivities were kept up until a late hour.

AFTERNOON TEA. Mrs. Elizabeth G. Cushing and daughter Miss Mildred Cushing, entertained fifty of their friends yesterday afternoon with a tea at their home on St. John avenue. The color scheme in decoration was yellow and green, and was effectively worked out in masses of leaved palms and flowering shrubs, branches of acacia and yellow daffodils. Over the tea table in the dining-room an umbrella was suspended with a hand. Here Misses Cora Aiken and Marjorie Sinclair presided over the tea. Mrs. Cushing wore a hand some Directors costume of black lace over blue satin, and Miss Cushing was daintily gown in white, organdie trimmed with cream antique lace.

GERMAN CONCERT. A grand concert is to be given here Thursday night by the male chorale of the Entschieden and Fidelio societies of Pasadena and Los Angeles.

GIRL SWIMS FIVE HOURS.

Athletic Miss Ugas Over Six Thousand Strokes at Long Beach.

LONG BEACH, Feb. 22—Miss Lillie Williams, athlete, fencer and pet stock fancier, broke all records at the bathhouse plunge yesterday, when she swam continuously for five hours. When compelled to stop by the instructor she was still strong. Prof. Vockeroth figures that she used over 6000 strokes to complete her endurance stunt.

It will be held at the Macabees auditorium. The conductor will be J. Edward Wagg, the soloists Mrs. Willis S. Tiffany, soprano; Reginald Elard, violin; George Stroebel, guitar, and the accompanist will be Miss Vera Williams.

TWO BARN'S FIRED. One barn was destroyed by fire last night and another was not ablaze five minutes later, but was saved. The police think incendiaries, probably boys, did the job. The blaze broke out in the barn at No. 49 Raymond avenue, belonging to Harry Webb. The structure and fifty acres of hay and stock on the lot is $2500. Twenty-five mules belonging to the Purchill-Gilmore Company were rescued five minutes later. Another barn in the same neighborhood, belonging to the Sanitary Creamery, was found to be on fire. The flames were put out before much damage was done.

Desirable furnished bungalow, with board. Hotel Vista del Arroyo, Pasadena. Navajo blankets, baskets. Wigwag, St. N. Euclid. Pictures framed at Wadsworth's. Phelps for wall paper and paints.

PICNIC BY SEA OF CANADIANS.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY SPENT IN NEIGHBORLY WAY.

Illinois Colony Also Meets at Long Beach and Dines in the Sun Parlor. As Stockholders of City Corporation Taxpayers Will Hear Mayor's Financial Report Today.

LONG BEACH, Feb. 22—Washington's Birthday was generally observed here today; most of the business houses closed at noon. Several hundred persons went to the picnic at Agricultural Park and as many other people came to Long Beach to attend reunions here, the largest of which were the Canadian and Polish II. gatherings. The first annual picnic of the Canadian colony in Southern California brought together about 600, who speedily found old friends and neighbors. Basket dinners were enjoyed on the picnic field of the auditorium, and after a programme of speeches and music, these officers were elected: President, J. H. Dawson, Walnut; Albert, Albert, Walnut; J. A. Dodge, Long Beach; secretary, W. H. Harrison, Long Beach; treasurer, W. H. Harrison, Long Beach; Messrs. Harrison, Dawson and Farmer, Reception Committee. Among those present was W. A. Brown of Minneapolis, who received medals from the Queen for services during the Fenian raid of 1866.

PANA PARTY. Old friends from the town of Pana, Ill., to the number of 100, gathered today from all parts of Southern California and enjoyed their semi-annual reunion. The officers are: L. Dodge, Long Beach; president, and J. A. Dodge, Long Beach; secretary, and J. A. Dodge, Long Beach; treasurer, and J. A. Dodge, Long Beach; Messrs. Harrison, Dawson and Farmer, Reception Committee. Among those present was W. A. Brown of Minneapolis, who received medals from the Queen for services during the Fenian raid of 1866.

FINANCIAL REPORT. A mass meeting, called by Mayor Windham, will be held at the Auditorium tomorrow evening, when the financial report will be made, a financial report, which, he says, will be a record of the city as a corporation, are held to.

JEAN SAVAGE, an amateur, made his second balloon ascent from the beach, and cutting loose at a height of 2000 feet, landed safely in a tree, six blocks from the ocean. The balloon, a light red, and a red and white striped, was blown by a strong breeze and descended in the ocean half a mile out, but was picked up by the launch Rita.

COMPANY MEETS WITH BAD LUCK.

REDONDO ENTERPRISE SEEMS TO BE IN TROUBLE.

Mechanics and Others Tire of Waiting for Pay and Threaten to File Lawsuits. Today Enterprise Encountered Difficulties from Start—Minute Wind.

REDONDO, Feb. 22—The Pacific Motor and Automobile Company's local enterprise appears to be in trouble. Mechanics and laboring men who have been working for the company in the construction of its shops here have tired of waiting some $100,000 for five or six weeks for a pay day. The management put the men off from time to time with promises, and also the owners of leasing used in grading and material men who furnished cement and other material for use in the two big buildings alongside the tracks of the Los Angeles and Redondo Railway just outside the city limits.

Some of the men went to Los Angeles Saturday and interviewed Manager Tullison of the company. After some delay, Tullison offered checks of $5000, with promises of payment in full in the near future. This was not satisfactory to some of the men, especially those whose demands aggregate $20,000, and only the intervention of a holiday today delayed suit against the company and the filing of a writ of replevin against the property.

CITIZENS SUBSIDIZED. The Pacific Motor and Automobile Company entered into an agreement October 13 with a number of leading citizens of Redondo and with the Huntington interests here to go to the end of the road and erect a plant for the manufacture of what is known as the "Coyote Special," an eight-cylinder machine, said to be unusually fast and unusually cheap for the quality of automobile. The company agreed to erect its shops and manufacture and put on the market and sell and deliver twenty automobiles by the 15th of February. Citizens subscribed for $5000 worth of the company's stock, and the Huntington company donated ten acres of ground and agreed to sell an additional ten acres at $500 per acre.

Representations were made at the time which induced the people here to repose the greatest confidence in the company. Assurances were given that it was supplied with ample funds to prosecute its plans.

HAS HARD LUCK. From the beginning matters have not gone smoothly. The winter has been unusually unfavorable for work. The company encountered difficulties in getting material from the East; and, now, four days after the expiration of the time set within which to complete the factory and construct and sell and deliver twenty finished automobiles, with nothing beyond the grading and the foundation of the two big buildings and the frame of a building, the company finds itself threatened with a lot of petty suits against its perhaps less than $1000 for labor and material.

The result is that the people of Redondo fear they are about to see their money go to the wind. The Huntington people who donated the ground for the factory is apt to take the view of a pecuniary loss, and the ground will be plastered with mechanics' liens in the event of the ultimate failure of the automobile company and Walter.

DANGEROUS STORM. The storm of yesterday, in high winds and heavy snow, although the rainfall was comparatively light, was the most dangerous that has visited this city for two or three winters. There are no wind gauges here, but there are several old sailors who unhesitatingly declare that the storm of that about 3 o'clock Sunday morning the gale was blowing along at close quarters to the shipping except that a few broken piles under pier No. 1 went down. The encroachment of the water along Beach Road uncovered the service pipe of the water company, and caused some nervousness among the householders.

THEY ALL ENJOY IT. The wonderful Arrowhead Hot Springs will cure this rheumatism. A model hotel and unapproachable baths. They all enjoy it.

POMONA People Celebrate Washington's Birthday—Ontario Will Entertain. Ebbell Members.

POMONA, Feb. 22—Washington's Birthday was generally observed here today. The banks, postoffice, library and business houses were closed. Many people went from here to attend the Iowa picnic and park to the beach. Games and sports thronged with visitors and picknickers. A game of baseball was played at the high school grounds between the local school nine and Polytechnic High of Los Angeles.

WILL GO TO ONTARIO. Many members of the Pomona Ebbell Club will go to Ontario tomorrow to join in a reciprocity session as guests of the Current Events Club of that city. The Ontario ladies will serve luncheon to their guests. Frank W. Ebbell, a Goodwill ambassador, returned to her home in Los Angeles after spending a week here at the home of her aunt, Mrs. C. G. George.

CONTRACT FOR CHURCH. It is expected that the contract for the erection of the new $30,000 Christian Church will be let this week and work will soon be commenced upon the structure at the corner of Main and Center streets. The house now on the property will be moved. Much of the shrapnel and the stable on the lot have already been sold.

FIVE HUNDRED ATTEND PICNIC.

Mayor Weeks Extends Courtesy of City and Guests Are Driven About the San Gabriel Valley in Automobiles—New Officers Are Elected for Ensuing Year.

ALHAMBRA, Feb. 22—More than 500 former citizens of Fulton county, Ill., met together in this city today at the annual picnic of the Fulton County, Ill., Association. Short talks were given by Hon. Lucien Gray of Lewistown, Ill., G. L. Fraser, Rev. Milton Hamer and others. The afternoon was devoted to a renewal of old acquaintances and to sight-seeing generally, almost all the visitors taking advantage of the opportunity to see the beautiful San Gabriel Valley from the automobiles provided by their hosts. DEPRECATED DUPLICATION. LOCKSBURG, Feb. 22—La Verne is the name of a school district, stretching from San Dimas on the west to Claremont on the east and skirting the northern boundaries of this city. The people of that district, proud as they are of the name of La Verne, are chagrined to learn from the Associated Press dispatches today that the town has been named La Verne in Mill Valley in the northern part of this State. They deprecate this duplication of names.

AVAILON. AVAILON, Feb. 22—A large and enthusiastic congregation heard "Bill" Sunday at the Congregational Church last evening. Mr. Sunday elaborated upon the material usefulness of religion. As a side issue he gave a vivid description of his boyhood home in Illinois.

John Brinkley, while tramping the hills this morning, found a mushroom twenty-six inches in circumference. It weighed nearly one pound.

YOUNG MAN HIT BY TRAIN. Bones of Leg and Hand Fractured, But No Internal Injuries and Will Recover.

Ilyd Roberts, residing at Sichel and North Main streets, was hit by a Southern Pacific passenger train near Lamar street, last evening, and sustaining a fracture of the right leg below the knee and a fracture of the bone in the left hand and general body bruises.

He was his life to the fact that he was caught by the fender of the engine in such manner that he was thrown to the end of the tracks and out of the path of the wheels. The engineer saw the accident, stopped the train and waited twenty minutes until the crew could arrange to have the injured man taken to the Crocker-street Hospital.

According to witnesses, Roberts was walking along the tracks and stepped from the top of an incoming train in front of the outgoing one. He is 21 years of age and is employed at the Llewellyn Iron Works. Attending physicians found no symptoms of internal injuries.

ON WAY TO MANILA. Army Surgeon Says Philippine Capital Is Looked on as a Desirable Post.

Col. L. W. Crampton, U. S. Army Medical Corps, who has been stationed at San Francisco, is on his way to Manila with his wife at the Alexandria. Col. Crampton is en route to Manila, P. I., where he has recently been appointed chief surgeon.

Col. Crampton has never been in Manila for a few days on a recent tour around the world. He says the general health of the enlisted men in the American army in the island possessions is very good. "The American occupation," said Col. Crampton, "the sanitary conditions of the city and adjacent places have been better to such an extent that instead of fearing a deadly disease, the army is now looking upon that pest as unusually attractive." Col. Crampton will sail from San Francisco, March 7.

novelty in the war of real apparatus, but the whole thing is played in a screamingly high key, with all the exaggeration of a shocker melodrama. The result is what might be made into a strong and holding bit of real life becomes almost preposterous. It would be interesting to see this sketch given a production along legitimate lines, for it has a gripping power that is lost as it is given now.

This is exactly what Hartman does in his play, "Mountain Cinderella." It is still one of the strong acts of the bill; the Josselins are clever in their picture of the Murrays. The girls have some new songs, and Charles Wayne and his dainty assistant, Miss Des Roches, please with "The Morning After."

Ferris Hartman and his company are disposing of a Chinese "Moonbeam" at the Grand Opera-house this week. Though the piece has no great essential humor—much less than "The Amuse"—it is a very good one in fact, there are a number of detached situations which an energetic and resourceful comedian can work up, by sheer determined effort, to considerable laughable advantage.

It is not so long ago that this piece was presented under fairly elaborate circumstances at the Grand Opera-house, hence its advent in stock is a matter of considerable enterprise on the part of the management. As a musical-comedy it is a very good one, and its success is a matter of considerable enterprise on the part of the management.

Little Muggins Davies, who is as pretty resourceful a youngster as the local stage has held in many a day, is selected to the really difficult P. I. and certain scenes of the play, and the outlandish scenes in one bold stroke. This is really Muggins' show, and he has a number of clothes and her own attractive features for the comedy and straight-line mouth.

Christine Nielsen has a part of no great consequence as Soo-So. She is a good actress, and her part is a good one. She is a good actress, and her part is a good one. She is a good actress, and her part is a good one.

There is a neatly effective back drop, some splashes of oriental color in the costumes, and isolated bits of clever music.

BLOODY DEEDS. CRAZED LOVER RUNS AMUCK.

Shoots Woman and Man and Kills Himself.

Before Death, Declares He Cut Wife's Throat.

Tragedy Follows Domestic Complications.

Crazed with jealousy, Frederick Knoblock, a cabinet maker, yesterday afternoon shot Mrs. Odessa Norris in both sides, wounded Roth Reynolds, an old man who came to her rescue, and then committed suicide by sending a bullet through his head.

The woman will probably recover, but Reynolds received only a flesh wound in the forehead of his right hand.

The tragedy took place in the rear of trouble. I forgive him for what he has done, but I had trouble enough without having these bullet holes in me.

"I am now 19 years of age. I was born in Tennessee, and my people live there now. I met J. W. Norris while there, and we were married. I wasn't used to work, and had never done much before our marriage, but I had to work hard afterward. My husband said that it would be necessary to bring me West for my health, and I went to San Francisco with him. We stayed there for a while, and then went to the country where my husband engaged in business as a road-grading contractor.

GETS WORK FOR HER.

"We came later to Los Angeles. That was about five months ago. My husband deserted me here and went to Texas with another woman, and I was left to shift for myself. I lived with my brother, Aaron Mabey, of Pasadena, for a time. One day I came to Los Angeles. While I was looking for work Knoblock came up and spoke to me. We talked a little while and he said that although he had been here only a short time from Yuleta, Ark., he knew everyone in the city. He secured work for me at a dye works. A short time thereafter he began to bother me. He said that he loved me and wanted me to come and live with him. I refused to do this, and he just kept after me day and night. I moved from one place to another, trying to keep away from him, but he always found out where I was.

ENDORSED BY PHYSICIANS

After treating eczema for years as a practically incurable blood disease, the medical world is greatly interested in the discovery that it is not a blood disease at all, but is due to a parasite in the skin itself. This parasite is easily destroyed by the external application of a compound of oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc. This will quickly kill all eczema germs, while soothing and refreshing the skin.

Dr. R. A. Folkerts, of Duluth, Minn., tells of the success in treating patients.

"There was a man here suffering from eczema for the last fourteen years, and I applied the D. D. D. treatment. I also applied it to a man of West Duluth, Minn., who has been suffering with Rheumatism for fourteen years, and Eczema in his feet, and the second treatment in both cases cleared the skin almost absolutely. The first application is a balm, and its soothing effect is beyond expression. I shall never be without it, and shall use it among my patients altogether."

No matter how terribly you suffer from eczema, salt rheum, ringworm, etc., you will feel instantly soothed and the itch allayed at once when a few drops of this oil of wintergreen compound is applied. The cures all seem to be permanent.

YOUNG AMERICA ENTHUSES.

Young America's patriotic spirit was fully attested at the entertainment given under the auspices of the Daughters of the Revolution at Recreation Center, St. John and Holly streets, last evening.

A lecture on "The American Flag" by Judge Olin Wellborn was the feature, and it aroused the enthusiasm of the large number of young folks and their elders who were present. The lecture was prepared by the Daughters of the Revolution, and was enlivened by many interpolations by the judge. The history of the flag and its notable events in the making of the republic were reviewed and illustrated with seventy-five stereoscopic views.

When a picture of the Cuban flag with its single star was shown, Judge Wellborn said that star really belonged to the American flag, and he believed that some day it would be there.

Vigorous cheers greeted a picture of President Roosevelt, and the speaker remarked that he was glad to see the young folks knew it so well. He said that President Roosevelt had done more for peace than any other man of the present day, and that his services will be given full recognition by generations to come.

Addresses were also made by Mrs. M. A. English of the State Normal School and Mrs. Frances Sedgwick of the Chicago Chapter, D.R.

H. Von Hudenstan, a banker of Stockholm, Sweden, who is on a pleasure trip throughout the United States, is a guest at the Alexandria.

or W. S. McCloskey, a barber shop at No. 121 West Fourth street. It is said that Knoblock had been trying to make the young woman live with him, and she had persistently refused. He attempted to kill her on Friday afternoon on Seventh street, near Olive, but she was too quick for him and fled. Then he followed her and shot her in the back. She kept the revolver. Knoblock secured another, and about noon yesterday followed her to the shop and there fired at her.

The first shot missed, and the woman turned and ran. Roth Reynolds, who had acted as a father to her, dashed toward the man with the gun and received a bullet in the finger. Knoblock then fired twice at Mrs. Norris. One bullet pierced her right thigh, coming out directly opposite the point of entry; the other penetrated the left thigh, ranged down ward and was cut out of the leg just above the knee.

"You have killed me," screamed the woman as she fell. Knoblock watched her for a moment, as though to be sure that his aim had been good, and then as McCloskey came running from the shop, he turned and dashed down the alley. He was cornered near the mouth of it, and took aim at McCloskey, who had reached a pole. With several men watching him, the would-be murderer placed the revolver to his head and blew his brains out.

PANIC DURING SHOOTING.

There was a panic in the neighborhood during the shooting, and after Knoblock's death the street was blocked with people.

Mrs. Norris was taken to the Receiving Hospital and there operated on by Dr. Wright. Reynolds was also cared for at the hospital.

Knoblock's body was removed to the Bresce morgue, where an inquest will be held today.

The man's statement, just before his death, that he had murdered his wife by slashing her throat with a razor caused detectives to hasten to his home at No. 1039 Overton street. There it was learned that the couple had quarreled on Sunday and separated.

The officers were told that Mrs. Knoblock had gone to the country to visit friends. Last night she was located at Alhambra. She had not been injured.

"I believe Fred Knoblock was crazy," said Mrs. Norris at the hospital yesterday afternoon. "He had bothered me for five months or more and tried to make me do wrong, but I would have nothing to do with him. He became angry whenever I spoke to any other man, and raised all kinds

"I am now 19 years of age. I was born in Tennessee, and my people live there now. I met J. W. Norris while there, and we were married. I wasn't used to work, and had never done much before our marriage, but I had to work hard afterward. My husband said that it would be necessary to bring me West for my health, and I went to San Francisco with him. We stayed there for a while, and then went to the country where my husband engaged in business as a road-grading contractor.

GETS WORK FOR HER.

"We came later to Los Angeles. That was about five months ago. My husband deserted me here and went to Texas with another woman, and I was left to shift for myself. I lived with my brother, Aaron Mabey, of Pasadena, for a time. One day I came to Los Angeles. While I was looking for work Knoblock came up and spoke to me. We talked a little while and he said that although he had been here only a short time from Yuleta, Ark., he knew everyone in the city. He secured work for me at a dye works. A short time thereafter he began to bother me. He said that he loved me and wanted me to come and live with him. I refused to do this, and he just kept after me day and night. I moved from one place to another, trying to keep away from him, but he always found out where I was.

After treating eczema for years as a practically incurable blood disease, the medical world is greatly interested in the discovery that it is not a blood disease at all, but is due to a parasite in the skin itself. This parasite is easily destroyed by the external application of a compound of oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc. This will quickly kill all eczema germs, while soothing and refreshing the skin.

Dr. R. A. Folkerts, of Duluth, Minn., tells of the success in treating patients.

"There was a man here suffering from eczema for the last fourteen years, and I applied the D. D. D. treatment. I also applied it to a man of West Duluth, Minn., who has been suffering with Rheumatism for fourteen years, and Eczema in his feet, and the second treatment in both cases cleared the skin almost absolutely. The first application is a balm, and its soothing effect is beyond expression. I shall never be without it, and shall use it among my patients altogether."

No matter how terribly you suffer from eczema, salt rheum, ringworm, etc., you will feel instantly soothed and the itch allayed at once when a few drops of this oil of wintergreen compound is applied. The cures all seem to be permanent.

YOUNG AMERICA ENTHUSES.

Young America's patriotic spirit was fully attested at the entertainment given under the auspices of the Daughters of the Revolution at Recreation Center, St. John and Holly streets, last evening.

A lecture on "The American Flag" by Judge Olin Wellborn was the feature, and it aroused the enthusiasm of the large number of young folks and their elders who were present. The lecture was prepared by the Daughters of the Revolution, and was enlivened by many interpolations by the judge. The history of the flag and its notable events in the making of the republic were reviewed and illustrated with seventy-five stereoscopic views.

When a picture of the Cuban flag with its single star was shown, Judge Wellborn said that star really belonged to the American flag, and he believed that some day it would be there.

Vigorous cheers greeted a picture of President Roosevelt, and the speaker remarked that he was glad to see the young folks knew it so well. He said that President Roosevelt had done more for peace than any other man of the present day, and that his services will be given full recognition by generations to come.

Addresses were also made by Mrs. M. A. English of the State Normal School and Mrs. Frances Sedgwick of the Chicago Chapter, D.R.

H. Von Hudenstan, a banker of Stockholm, Sweden, who is on a pleasure trip throughout the United States, is a guest at the Alexandria.

ONE YEAR

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Milwaukee, Wis.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me a well woman, and I would like to tell the whole world of it. I suffered from female trouble and fearful pain in my back. I had the best doctors and they all decided that I had a tumor in addition to my female trouble, and I was to have an operation. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman and I have no more backache. I hope I can help others by telling them what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—MRS.
